

SQUIER'S CENTRAL AMERICA.
HARPER & BROTHERS,
No. 377 Broadway (Franklin-square).
PUBLISHER THIS DAY:

SQUER'S CENTRAL AMERICA.

Notes on Central America; particularly the States of Honduras and San Salvador; their Geography, Topography, Climate, Population, Resources, Products, &c., and the present condition of each. Price, $2. E. G. WOODWARD, Publisher. A gift of the United States to the Republics of Central America. With Original Maps and illustrations. See, Mosell, § 2.

This work opens with a general view of the geographical and political features of Central America, and an account of its climate and population—a complete survey is there presented of the republics of Honduras and San Salvador, and the work is brought down to the present time. Mr. Squier is a singularly shrewd observer. Nothing seems to escape his vigilance. His eyes no longer deceive him; it is evident that his curiosity is not only satisfied, now does he seem tire. His knowledge is now more comprehensive than it was before. His sympathies are a signal aid to his investigations. He loves to compare the most opposite manifestations of human character. This he does with a rare skill and precision. On this subject, and with the most ample statistical details, and exact local descriptions, are many lively pictures of national manners, reminiscences of personal experience, and sketches of romantic scenery; and the author's frank and cheerful manner, which is equally at home on the banks of the forest stream and in the gay assemblages of society, and hence the freshness of his narrative is never compromised by his devotion to geographical accuracy. A very important chapter of his work is devoted to the proper inter-oceanic route through Honduras.

PETER PARLEY and the COMING HILL-

DAYS—TO PARENTS AND CHILDREN.—The N.Y. Independent says: "Our young readers throughout the United States are anxious to have Peter Parley's books. We have got out of that great concern at Paris, because they thought he would go to making books again, which is his proper business. Mr. C. D. Gandy has sent us two beautiful books as a sort of first fruits in justification of popular belief, that Mr. Peter out of pocket very soon and agreeably goes home."
